Dear Parent/Carer

I write with some key reminders.

In-Service Training Day

Friday the 20th November is a city-wide in-service training day for staff at Northfield Academy. No pupils should attend school on this day.

Appointments at School

As per the Scottish Government guidelines, if parents / carers would like to attend the Northfield Academy campus, they need to make an appointment in advance via telephone or email. Parents should not attend unannounced.

Wearing of Face Coverings

Can I remind you that all pupils should be wearing face masks or coverings in all communal areas of the school such as corridors, canteen hall, approaching the main school office. Only pupils who have specific medical exemption are permitted not to wear a mask in these areas. These pupils should be carrying a Scottish Government exemption card or appropriate lanyard. Physical or digital cards are available by following this link: www.exempt.scot

For any pupils who lose or forget their mask, we have masks available and to date have given out 3,500 since our return in August. I would ask for your support in impressing upon your son / daughter the importance of complying with this Scottish Government legislation.

Adverse Weather

As we approach winter the weather is starting to deteriorate so please ensure that your child arrives at school dressed appropriately.

Yours sincerely,

Douglas Watt
Head Teacher
